Letter dated the 26th February 1920, from V.S.Ramaswami Sastri Esqr., B.A., B.L., Editor, "The Citizen", 1/2 A, Westcott Road, Royapettah, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Burma.

THE CITIZEN is a new English Weekly Journal which is proposed to be published in Madras. For some time past, the need has been felt in this part of India for a journal which will secure for the scheme of Indian constitutional reforms an instructed and rational support and create an atmosphere favourable for its efficient and fruitful working. A group of leading Indians in this Presidency have undertaken the financial responsibility respecting this journal, and it will be under a strong Committee of Supervision consisting of:-

Sir P.S. Sivaswami Aiyer K.C.S.I., C.I.E.,

M.R.Ry Dewan Bahadur L.A. Govindaraghava Aiyar Avl.,

" " M. Ramachandra Rao, Panthulu Garu,

" Rao Bahadur S.R.M.M. Annamalai Chettiar Avl.,

The Hon'ble Mr. C.V.S. Narasimha Raju,

M.R.Ry C.P. Ramaswami Aiyar Avl.,

" G.A. Natesan Avl.,

" T.R. Venkatarama Sastri Avl.,

" T.S. Ramswami Aiyar Avl.,

The CITIZEN will generally espouse the views of the Liberal party in India. Its special object will be to educate the electorate on the opportunities which the new Act affords for advance in schemes of political and social amelioration thus making further progress inevitable. It will attempt to enable electors to choose representatives of right type who would put forth their best efforts to secure to the people the maximum advantage under the new conditions.

I am instructed by the Committee of Supervision to request that the Government of Burma will be pleased to extend to THE CITIZEN the privileges of the Editors' Table and to direct it to be placed on the free list with regard to the Gazette of your province.

The first issue of THE CITIZEN will appear in the second .

second week of March, 1920 and I shall be happy to send you copies of it so soon as they should be ready.

DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I am directed to say that the Editor of the "Citizen" an English Weekly Journal which certain Indian Gentlemen, in Madras, propose to publish, has asked to be granted, free of charge, a copy of the United Provinces Gazette and the privilege of the Editor's table. The Government of the United Provinces would be obliged, if with the permission of the Governor in Council, it could be informed whether the journal is one deserving of the encouragement asked for.

Sir,

I am directed to state that the Editor of the Citizen, a new English weekly published in this Presidency, has applied to this Govt. for recommendation to the Govt of India for admission to the privileges of the Editors' Table and for the supply of the Gazette of India. The object of the paper has, it is understood, been explained in an application submitted by the Editor direct to the Govt of India in February last. The weekly was admitted by this Govt. recently to the privileges of the Editors' Table and I am directed to request that it may be accorded the same privileges by the Govt of India
