From
C. W. Gwynne Esquire, O.B.E.,
Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Delhi, the 21st January 1921.

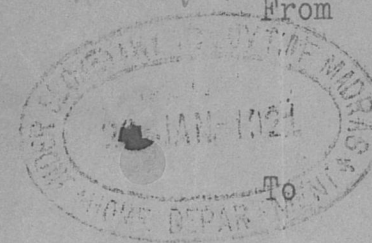

Sir,

I am directed to say that a Cinematograph Company known as the Moving Pictures Exhibition of British Industries Ltd, has arranged for a tour in India embracing Calcutta, Bombay, Delhi and Madras, and commencing about February/March 1921. The Company, whose tour is primarily commercial in its objectives, will exhibit principally industrial films illustrating British manufactures, improved processes, etc., but a propaganda film will probably also be shown. It is thought that the exhibitions will serve a useful purpose and I am to request that with the permission of His Excellency the Governor in Council the enterprise may be commended to the local officers concerned and that such facilities as are deemed suitable may be afforded to the Company during its tour.

I have the honour to be,
Sir
Your most obedient servant.
