SIR,

I have the honor to state that in the separation of Offices, Colonel Boulderson has retained the Clock of the Royapet Police Court, and as it is a most necessary appendage to a Police Court, I request I may be permitted to purchase one and charge the same in my Contingent Bill.

I have seen a second-hand Clock at Messrs. Scriven and Co.'s just adapted to the purpose, and it can be purchased for one hundred Rupees, should this sum be sanctioned by the Right Honorable the Governor in Council.
