Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 29th September 1857.

No. 19. Read the following letter from Captain C. BIDEN, Master Attendant; to E. MALTBY, Esq., Acting Chief Secretary, to Government, dated 10th September 1857.

SIR,

Referring to Extract Minutes of Consultation of the 5th Instant, No. 1152, I have the honor to forward an account particular of the disbursements made by me on account of the party of Seamen and others engaged for service during the Mohurram.

2. The items that appear to require explanation are those for clothing and hats, many of the men being indifferently clad, two suits of light clothing were, with the sanction of the Right Honorable the Governor, supplied to each, and when I inspected them at the Penitentiary I found that to preserve any uniformity the men required each a straw hat, which, at my own responsibility, I supplied, and as their conduct was most exemplary, I have ventured to permit them to retain one of those suits with the straw hats and rugs.

The men were paid up for 16 days and discharged yesterday in accordance with the instructions conveyed in the Minute under reply.

(Signed) CHRIS. BIDEN,
Master Attendant.

No. 20. ORDER THEREON, No. 1224; dated 23rd September 1857.

1. With the foregoing letter, the Master Attendant submits an account particular of the expenses incurred on account of the men engaged by him for service during the Mohurram, amounting in the aggregate, to Rupees 1,497-14-4. Under date 5th September 1857, Government sanctioned an advance of Rupees 1,200 being made to Captain Biden; and there consequently is a balance of Rupees (297-14-4) two hundred and ninety-seven, Annas fourteen and Pice four still due to him. The Right Honorable the Governor in Council accordingly authorizes the disbursement of this last named sum to that Officer.

2. His Lordship in Council approves of the Master Attendant having permitted the men to retain a suit of the clothes, with the straw hats and rugs, supplied them; but he wishes to know how it is intended to dispose of the remaining suits.

(Signed) E. MALTBY,
Acting Chief Secretary.
