Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 29th September 1857.

No. 28. Read the following letter from Commander J. STEPHENS, I. N., Commanding Honorable Company's Steamer Zenobia; to E. MALTBY, Esq., Acting Chief Secretary to Government, dated September 23rd, 1857, No. 32.

Sir,

I have the honor to request that any number of Sailors who are confined in Jail for petty offences, may be pardoned and allowed to volunteer for the Zenobia, as that vessel is at present very short handed. Should any volunteer, I trust that the Magistrates by whom they were committed will consent to allow the men to be released.

(Signed) JOHN STEPHENS, Commander,
Commanding Zenobia.

No. 29. ORDER THEREON, No. 1231; dated 24th September 1857.

Ordered to be communicated to the Commissioner of Police, who will, without delay, submit a list of such of the Sailors, that are now confined in Jail for petty offences, as may be disposed to volunteer for the Zenobia, stating their crimes, the term for which they have been sentenced to imprisonment, and the period of such imprisonment that has expired.

(Signed) E. MALTBY,
Acting Chief Secretary.
