I have entered the notes to Rule 6 + checked the proof.

The following points in the proof are for orders: - Not necessary.

(1) In rule 30 in Chapter II, the words gaoler, deputy gaoler, jail clerk, Chief head warden + reserve head warden are not in Capitals. Should they not be in Capitals.

(2) In rule 31, ~~section 46~~ ^{the words} "of the Code" should be, it appears,
"of the Criminal Procedure Code" and I have inserted the words accordingly. This is for approval.

Note (4) is obviously wrong, as Bellary is now a Central Jail, while there is no S. Jail at Nellore. Inquire in the L.G.'s office what the practice is.

Dear Mr Chidambaram Esq.

In continuation of my yesterday's note I am forwarding herewith copies of two letters one to the District Magistrate and the other to the Sessions Judge before from which you will see how the prisoners of the Kallur are arranged to be disposed of. These arrangements were reported to Govt and sanctioned by them in G.O. No 11287 dated 22-6-47. The raising of Bellary to the status of a central jail has caused no change in the commitment of prisoners to that jail.

Yours sincerely
L Venkateswar

Dear Mr. Chidambara Ayyar,

Your officer's presumption is correct. Bellary is now a Central Jail and there is no District Jail at Nellore. These notes have been completely - - omitted in Colonel. Macnamara's draft.

Bellary and Vizagapatam has been raised to the status of Central Jails and the District Jails at Russelkonda, Mangalore and Nellore have been - - - converted into Sub-Jails. Correction slips - - - wherever necessary, consequent on these changes, were not issued as the revision of the Jail Manual was under contemplation for a very long time. Please therefore see that these corrections are carried put wherever necessary.

In Rule 2, Cannanore must come under First - - class Central Jails. Please carry out this correction also, if this has not already been made in your
