No. 57. Read the following letter from the Honorable Company's Solicitor; to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, dated October 2nd 1857, No. 572.

SIR,

With reference to the papers noted in the margin, I have the honor to forward for the consideration and orders of Government, a Letter from Honorable Company's Solicitor to Government, dated 10th July 1857, No. 400. copy of a letter to my address, from Mr. James Ouchterlony, Justice of the Peace and Principal Sudr Ameen at Ootacamund together with the 10 enclosures contained in the original letter.

I beg to add that I concur in opinion with Mr. Ouchterlony, as to 50 Rupees being a sufficient allowance for Constable Eckersall's expenses, exclusive of the actual cost of travelling.

(Signed) J. R. BOYSON,

Honorable Company's Solicitor.

From J. OUCHTERLONY, Esq., Justice of the Peace and Principal Sudr Ameen of Ootacamund; to J. R. BOYSON, Esq., Honorable Company's Solicitor, Madras, dated 21st August 1857, No. 123.

SIR,

With reference to your letter of the 13th Ultimo, No. 404, I have the honor to annex a statement of the expenses of the witnesses Appavoo Naick and Lingum, on the late trial before the Supreme Court of E. O. N. Rehling.

I do not like to delay this longer, although Appavoo Naick has not yet returned to Ootacamund. He was taken ill at Madras, and no accounts of him have been received since. I have therefore included no charge for his transport back, supposing it probable that he may be coming on foot, in which case the present account will suffice to cover expenses.

I have the honor at the same time to transmit the account of the expenses incurred in carrying the prisoner E. O. N. Rehling to Madras, and request you will submit this account also for the sanction of Government, at your early convenience.

As the present complete the whole of the accounts of expenses incurred in connection with this trial, will you be so good as move the Government to have the total sanctioned for payment through the Collector of Coimbatore.

(Signed) J. OUCHTERLONY,

Justice of the Peace and Principal Sudr Ameen.

(True Copy.)

Honorable Company's Solicitor.

No. 58. ORDER THEREON, No. 1292; dated 6th October 1857.

The Government sanction the Bills submitted with the foregoing letter for expenses incurred by witnesses Appavoo Naick and Lingum on the late trial of E. O. N. Rehling, before the Supreme Court, and for conveying the said prisoner to Madras, amounting to Rupees (128-1) one hundred and twenty-eight, and Anna one, and Rupees (244-4-4) two hundred and forty-four, Annas four and Pice four, respectively, the same to be disbursed to the Principal Sudder Ameen of Ootacamund by the Collector of Coimbatore. The Government concur that Rs. 50 are a sufficient allowance to the Constable for accompanying the prisoner to Madras. The total amount of the Bill has been accordingly reduced by this sum.
