Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 6th October 1857.

No. 60. Circular from E. MALTBY, Esq., Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George; to the Magistrates of Coast Districts, dated 6th October 1857, No. 1294.

SIR,

You are directed to take vigilant measures to prevent subjects of Foreign European States landing at the Ports of your district, or passing through it for the purpose of penetrating into the interior of the country, unless they come from Madras, and can show that they have the permission of Government to travel in the Provinces. This order is to continue in force until further instructions, and is intended more especially to prevent Foreign Military Officers and Adventurers, who may wish to find employment with the Mutineers from reaching their camps, but it is applicable to Foreigners of all descriptions who are found moving about the country, and are not known to Government or to the local authorities.

(Signed) E. MALTBY,
Acting Chief Secretary.
