Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 10th November 1857.

No. 28. Read the following letter from C. F. CHAMIER, Esq., Acting Register to the Court of Sudr Udalut; to E. MALTBY, Esq., Acting Chief Secretary to Government, dated 1st October 1857, No. 97.

SIR,

1. I am directed by the Judges of the Sudr Udalut, now to address the Government on the subject of the Extract from the Minutes of Consultation, under date the 28th January last, which had been inadvertently laid aside.

2. The Judges were of opinion that the enquiry directed in para. 1, could not, with propriety, be prosecuted through the medium of the Civil Judge, and not considering the matter one of sufficient importance to justify the Judges in recommending the appointment of a Commission for the purpose, they simply awaited the result of the review of the Head Assistant Magistrate's proceedings in the case reported on, in my letter of this date, as the same Vencatasoo was concerned therein.

3. The Judges think that no good would result from any further investigation into the alleged intrigues of the Cuddapah Court servants, and that it would be preferable to leave each case to be dealt with by the Civil Judge, as it is brought to his knowledge.

4. With respect to the several petitions referred to in the 2nd para: the Judges deem it extremely unadvisable to take official notice of such matters as are therein contained, some have reference to the intrigues of the Court servants above alluded to, and should therefore have been presented to the Civil Judge, while instituting the enquiry; and others complain of the judicial acts of the Session Judge, and should therefore have been brought before the Foujdaree Udalut in the shape of an appeal.

5. Some months having elapsed since these petitions were forwarded, and no others of a similar nature having been since received, the Judges consider that it would be very inexpedient to re-open the subject; and therefore strongly recommend that no further notice be taken of it in connection with the said petitions.

6. The course herein suggested is rendered further advisable, as circumstances have come to the knowledge of the Judges, which explain the origin of the irregularities prevailing in the Cuddapah Civil Court, and which it will be their duty to lay before the Government, for their orders.

Acting Register.

Memo.

This letter was circulated with the papers regarding a suit decided by Mr Elliot in which Mr. Fouclair was interested - Some explanation has been called for in that case, but this letter is proposed to be needed.
