Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 6th February 1857.

No. 30. Read the following letter from Colonel J. C. BOULDERSON, Commissioner of Police; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, dated 27th January 1857, No. 13.

SIR,

With reference to the Extract from Minutes of Consultation, No. 83, dated 21st January 1857, and the letter from W. Robinson, Esq., Magistrate of Malabar; I have the honor to forward you the following information.

Coonhamod Cootty alias Coonny Cootty is now living in House No. 216, Angappa Naik Street, 1st Division. The House belongs to one Mahomud Salay, a merchant. Coonny Cootty came to Madras about 20 days ago from a village in Malabar, with four other men. Two of them left Madras about 10 days since. It is not known where they are gone to, but they are expected at Madras within five or six days, the other two men are living with Coonny Cootty.

Last Tuesday, the said Coonny Cootty sent a Petition to Government, regarding the Convicts under sentence of transportation, if he does not succeed in getting them released, he is to employ a Lawyer and Barrister recommended to him by Mohomed Salur, in order to get the Case tried again at the Supreme Court.

Coonny Cootty is the person who visited Madras about three months ago, and left it again for the Malabar Coast in order to obtain some money.

He has got some money. He is a black and thin man.
