Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 17th November 1857.

No. 35. Extract from the Minutes of Consultation, dated 17th November 1857, No. 1492,

It having been observed that cases have been sent for trial to the Commissioner in Salem, which ought to have been left to the ordinary Criminal Courts, Government resolve to call the attention of the Magistrate to their Circular Order of 25th August last, No. 1081, and to direct him to be careful that no cases are forwarded to the Commissioner, except offences against the State and actual dacoities or robberies by open violence. As also, only such as have been committed after personal inquiry by the Magistrate himself or one of his European Assistants, under Section X, Act XIV of 1857.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.

Exd. F. Cartledge.

The question is altogether a technical one.
Considering the fact that the Queen's Bench Queen's Bench has been of the Clerk of the Crown to prepare cases stating them for the Magistrates for trial before the Supreme Court But it is the Magistrate instead of the Clerk of the Crown If the act in question were to stand. the Words referring to the Magistrate should be made to refer to the Clerk of the words to the same" to come into force" may operate as words of futurity, or to show by these evidence" the Testator or any Testatrix shall have died with a Will made according to the ordinary course of law -

Some of the Judges cases that I have cases should have been sent to the Commissioner -
