SIR,

I have the honor to forward for sanction an Indent, for a Colt's Revolver and for 50 Swords, required for use in the Jail of Masulipatam. The Swords are of the kind denominated unserviceable, and being informed that they were being broke up as old steel, I requested Colonel Balfour to reserve them for use, a request which he obligingly complied with. In my letter of the 15th July 1857, No. 272, I stated in full my reasons for suggesting, that all Arms required for
Ext. Mins. Cons., 19th October 1857, No. 1370. Peons should be furnished by Government, and I do not now repeat any argument. The issue of the Revolver is already authorized.

As that Officer was instructed under date 19th October last, to make over to the Inspector of Prisons, the 20 Revolvers purchased for the use of Jailors, it was unnecessary to have included in this Indent the one required for the Jailor at Masulipatam.
