Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 17th February 1857.

No. 1. Read the following letter from Lieutenant Colonel H. COLBECK, Magistrate of Police; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department, dated 9th February 1857, No. 6.

SIR,

I have the honor to state, that for many years a Conicopolly has been in the habit of assisting the Cash-keeper at the Royapet Police Court, by collecting and paying into his hands, the various fines imposed during each day, as it would be impossible for him to perform this duty and transact his own efficiently.

In the proposed Establishment prepared by Mr. Elliot, dated the 29th March 1856, and submitted to and sanctioned by Government, no Conicopolly is provided. I have therefore reserved one Writer's appointment (sanctioned in the List above alluded to,) and request the Right Honorable the Governor in Council will permit me to pay from this sum of 25 Rupees ten Rupees to a Conicopolly, and with the remaining fifteen I will engage to supply a Writer, fully efficient for the performance of the duties I require of him, as with the hope of promotion, many well-educated young men will gladly accept the appointment.

By this arrangement the Government will not be put to the smallest expense, and the working of the Office will be more efficient.

(Signed) H. COLBECK,
Magistrate of Police.

No. 2. ORDER THEREON, No. 179; dated 11th February 1857.

The Government are not prepared to authorize the arrangement suggested in the above letter.
