Dated	17-2-1857.	198

Not to be folded or roughly handled.

Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 17th February 1857.

No. 13. Read the following letter from J. R. BOYSON, Esq., Acting Honorable Company's Solicitor; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department, dated 4th February 1857, No. 68.

SIR,

I have the honor to acknowledge the papers noted in the margin. I have communicated thereon with the Commissioner of Police, and I now forward for the consideration of Government, a revised Notification, defining the proposed Police Districts for Madras and their boundaries, which I believe to be as clear and as accurate as it can well be made.

I have thought it expedient to vary the revised Notification submitted by the Commissioner of Police to Government very considerably.

Section XXII of Act XIII of 1855, provides for the constitution of Police Districts "within the Town of Madras," and Section II, of the same Act, declares that the word "Town" shall include "all places within the Local limits of the Jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Supreme Court at Madras." The boundaries of the Local limits of the Supreme Court are well known, and I have considered it more advisable to describe the boundaries of the Police Districts (where such was practicable) by general reference to the boundaries of the Local limits of the Supreme Court, than to attempt a more minute description which might possibly vary in some respects from the defined or admitted boundaries of the Local limits of the Supreme Court, and thus lead to difficulty.

(Signed) J. R. BOYSON,

Acting Honorable Company's Solicitor
