JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

No. 19.

Extract from the Minutes of Consultation under date the 6th January 1857.

Read the following Despatch from the Honorable the Court of Directors.

Review the papers respecting the trouble between the Bhangs of Gomah and the Dandabach of Gylah, the outrages committed by them, and the escape of the latter to the Purlah Kinsedy Jangles; observe, with satisfaction, the exertions made by Mr. Koon to put a stop to the disturbances, but think that he deserves notice for the very insufficient measures taken by him for the safe custody of prisoners so important to the peace of his district; notice the very favorable reports of the Major General Commanding the Northern Division, as to the great zeal and ability shown by Captain Wilson of the 26th Regiment N. I. and the several Officers under his command, and trust that a future Despatch will inform them that Government have not failed to notice this report.

(Here enter 5th November 1856, No. 11.)

Ordered that a copy of the foregoing Despatch be furnished to the Acting Agent at Ganjam for his information.

2. Ordered also that copy of the Despatch be furnished to the Military Department, whence the favorable notice taken by the Honorable Court of his conduct will be communicated to Captain Wilson, 26th N. I.

(A true Extract.)

Extract from the minutes of consultation

Dated 6th January 1857.

Read the following Despatch from the Hon^{ble} the Comd of Sectors

Review the papers respecting the trials between the Messrs of Lomah and the Comdant of Gylah, the outrages committed by them, and the escape of the latter to the Puntah River by being set adrift, with satisfaction, the exertions made by Mr. Wilson to put a stop to the disturbances, but think that he deserves praise for the very insufficient measures taken by him for the safe custody of prisoners so important to the peace of his district, when the very favorable report of the Major General Commanding the Northern Division, as to the great zeal and ability shown by Capt. Wilson of the 26th Regt.
N.I. and the several officers under his command, and think that a future despatch
