Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 24th February 1857.

No. 7. Read the following letter from GEORGE ELLIS, Esq., Register to the Court of Foujdaree Udalt ; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, dated 14th February 1857, No. 12.

SIR,

1. I am directed by the Judges of the Court of Foujdaree Udalt to state for the information of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, that the Acting Subordinate Judge of Cuddapah has reported that a Convict named Boya Moodoogaudoo, who was sentenced by the Session Judge of Cuddapah in 1849 to 14 years' Imprisonment, escaped from the Jail at Guntoor on the 10th March 1855, and has been apprehended and sent up to his Court for trial, and requests authority to try the Convict, as there is a Prisoner in the Cuddapah Jail, who was at Guntoor when the Convict effected his escape, and other Peons, who can depose to his indentify.

2. Under these circumstances, and as there appears no necessity for sending the Convict to Guntoor for trial, the Judges beg to recommend that, under Section III, Regulation III, authority be granted for the trial of the Prisoner in question, by the Acting Subordinate Judge of Cuddapah.

(Signed) GEORGE ELLIS,
Register.

No. 8. ORDER THEREON, No. 208; dated 19th February 1857.

Under the Provisions of Regulation III of 1827, Section III, the Right Honorable the Governor in Council authorizes the trial before the Subordinate Court of Cuddapah of the Convict Boya Moodoogaudoo for escape from the Jail at Guntoor.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
