Sir,

I have the honor to request permission to put in force the provisions of Act XXIII of 1854, Sec IV & V, with reference to the two individuals noted in the margin. In doing so, I beg to submit the decision recorded by Mr. Collett in their case when ordering the confinement on security for 3 years of these two dangerous young men.

The individual noted in the margin behaved well recently in the instance of a slight manifestation of insubordination in the jail, and the other wishes to furnish security security & obtain his release, and I think they ought to be set at liberty, but I would deprecate having them at large in the district, & consider it most desirable to get them out of the country till the change of feeling which is taking place has been established, & they both have got years & since to give up fanatical leanings which they unquestion-ably have harbored for years.

I beg therefore to recommend that both be given the option, which they are both willing to accept, of leaving the country under the penalties provided in Section VI for a space of 5 years. They will go to Scotia or elsewhere.

I recommend likewise that it be permitted to give each on embarking supplies 25.

Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Acting Magistrate.

the fact that there was a prospect of their being brought before the Commission Officer in a charge of leading infamous hosts. The consequences of their intervention with that of the speaking, their attempt not only simply to desert as others had done, but to quit the country altogether, their resorting to the 'King's' and the relationship of the prisoner to the position in the country, the expressions which it is in evidence they have subsequently made use of, raise strong suspicion that the fear of the accusation allotted to was not what en-duced them to desert, but that they were in communication with the murderers of Mr. Connelley.
 The previous character of the prisoner in particular is much against them. The prisoner though a young man of age determined opposition to the prisoner, has since his employment in the Police Corps become an intimate friend of the prisoner. His ordinary practice influenced by him. Previously my attention had been attracted to him as he had previously with his father began to be very untruthful. Looking at the nature of the suspicion against them, the language they have made use of, and that previous character, I think it very necessary for the peace of the country, that subject to the approval of the sitting judge, they should be removed under Clause 3, Section VIII, Regulation W 1834, and a provision for further in the case of W 1834 in case for their good behavior during the period of their passage.
