Fort. St. George, Judicial Consultation, 17th March 1857.

No. 34.

ORDER THEREON, No. 310; dated 14th March 1857.

1. On a review of the Statement of Gang and Highway Robberies for the Quarter ending 31st December 1856, the Government observe that there has been a large increase (21 cases) of the former class of Robberies in the Coimbatore District for which no reason is assigned in the return submitted by the Magistrate. That Officer will be called upon, through the Court of Foujdaree Udalt, for information as to the cause of this increase.

2. It is also remarked that while the number of Gang Robberies has decreased in Cuddappah by 11, that of Highway Robberies has risen by 13 cases. There is also a considerable increase in this crime in Nellore, 11 cases, and North Arcot 8 cases. The Foujdaree Udalt were called upon for a special report on the state of crime in this last District, under date 15th December 1856, which has not yet been submitted. A copy of the return now received will be furnished to them.
