Sir,

Recd 22d Dec 56 & Ans 57.

1 In reply to Extract from the Minutes of Consultation of the 15th ultimo No. 1244, I beg to inform the Government with reference to para 3, that the Joint Magistrate of Cotaccamund reports to me that the intended appeal by the Cutwall was withdrawn.

2 . . With regard to the powers of Police Ameen discussed in

in para 6, I have already nominated the 3 Officers indicated as authorized by Section XL Regulation XI of 1816, and Section II Regn IV of 1821, notifying the same as usual to the Session Court, — it not having been usual to refer to Government for this arrangement - to which the Magistrate, if need exist, seems Competent to appoint -

3. The Several Jurisdictions were distinctly defined as follows - The Cutwall of Cotaecammd to have Jurisdiction over three Miles in all directions from Cotaecammd, the Peishcar at Kotagherry over two Miles from Kotagherry and the Cutwall of Coonoor the same from Coonoor - and the arrangement is working well. The three Officers were directed, in my Orders to them, only to decide Cases of drunkenness and petty assaults and affrays, as well as petty thefts - but to enter on no serious Cases - their own Establishments will Suffice at present, & Government need be put to no Cost unless business greatly increase -

I have the honor to be

Sir,

Your most Obedt Servant -
