Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 12th May 1857.

No. 37. Read the following Extract from the Minutes of Consultation in the Public Works Department, dated 2nd May 1857, No. 851.

Read the following Extract from the Minutes of Consultation in the Judicial Department.

Sanctioning the expense incurred in October and November 1856, for the attendants on, and feeding the Bullocks employed in connection with the Convicts upon the roads of the Trichinopoly Cantonment, &c. amounting to Rupees 231-7-7 and observing meanwhile, that until definite orders be passed on this head, the Judge is to continue to arrange for the keep of the Bullocks and pay of Establishment that the roads may not suffer. (Here enter 6th February 1857, No. 160.)

Ordered that the sum of Rupees 231-7-7 sanctioned in the Judicial Department as the expense incurred in October and November 1856, for attendants and for feeding the Bullocks employed to aid the Convicts in repairing the roads of the Trichinopoly Cantonment, be debited to "Repairs of roads," in the accounts of the Public Works Department. Future charges of a similar nature must be met from the annual allowances sanctioned for the maintenance of the Cantonment roads, and pending a final settlement of the question of superintendence in Military Cantonments referred to in Minutes of Consultation of this day's date, No. 850. The District Engineer of Trichinopoly will make arrangements for the repair of the Cantonment roads and for the discharge of all necessary expenses.
