Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 26th May 1857.

No. 9. Read the following letter from Colonel J. C. BOULDERSON, Commissioner of Police; to E. MALTBY, Esq., Acting Chief Secretary to Government, dated 13th May 1857, No. 51.

SIR,

Extract Minutes Consultation, Judicial Department, dated 25th October 1856, No. 1166.

Although the Government have been pleased, (date in margin given) to define the local limits of the Police Districts, under the provisions of Section XXII of Act No. XIII of 1856, yet I feel it desirable respectfully to do myself the honor to bring to the notice of Government, the necessity also of defining the limits of the Port and Road-stead of Madras, as required by Clause I, Section XXVI of the Police Code, [Act XIII of 1856] from which it will be seen that these limits are required to be defined, under the provisions of Act XXII of 1855; and until this is done, I have reason to apprehend that in consequence of Act XXI of 1839, Section X, and Act III of 1842,† having been repealed, the jurisdiction of the Madras Magistrates over petty thefts and other offences committed in Boats while afloat, is likely to be questioned.

(Signed) J. C. BOULDERSON,
Commissioner of Police.

† Extended to Madras by Act VIII of 1849, which has been repealed by the Police Code.

No. 10. ORDER THEREON, No. 598; dated 20th May 1857.

It is observed that a definition of the limits of the Port of Madras has been already submitted for the sanction of the Government of India, in the Marine Department, under date 8th April 1857. When it is received, the necessary notification will be published for general information.

(Signed) E. MALTBY,
Acting Chief Secretary.
