Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 26th May 1857.

No. 22. Read the following letter from Colonel J. C. BOULDERSON, Commissioner of Police; to E. MALTBY, Esq., Acting Chief Secretary to Government, dated 20th May 1857, No. 55.

SIR,

With reference to the orders of Government, dated 16th Instant, No. 577, Judicial Department; for the apprehension of one Goolab Rao, who is stated to have stolen about 119 Gold Mohurs, with some Rupees, amounting in the aggregate to 3,000, the property of one Rajashur Rao, belonging to the establishment of His Highness the Nizam of Hyderabad; I have the honor to state, that I have just learnt that the fugitive has passed into the Chingleput District, and the absence of a legal Warrant for his apprehension precludes me from pursuing him within the jurisdiction of another Magistrate. I would therefore respectfully suggest that immediate orders may be issued by Government to the Magistrate of Chingleput, for his apprehension and detention in his Jail, pending the receipt of a Warrant for his transfer to the Nizam's Dominions where the felony was committed. The place at which the man has sheltered himself as well as his person, are known, and I shall cause him to be pointed out to the Police Officers of the District

(Signed) J. C. BOULDERSON,
Commissioner of Police.

No. 23. ORDER THEREON, No. 607; dated 20th May 1857.

Ordered to be communicated to the Magistrate of Chingleput, who will proceed under the provisions of Section XIX of Act VII of 1854, to apprehend and detain the party referred to, and make a report to Government.

2. Colonel Boulderson is instructed in future similar cases, to communicate direct with the Magistrate of the adjoining District, or, if occasion arises, to send his Peons in pursuit of the accused, with orders to take him when apprehended before the local Magistrate. The law authorizes these courses, and by following them, the arrest of the accused party is facilitated. Colonel Boulderson can at the same time report to Government the measure he has adopted, on each occasion.

Acting Chief Secretary.
