Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 9th June 1857.

No. 8. Read the following letter from GEORGE ELLIS, Esq., Register to the Court of Sudr Udalut; to E. MALTBY, Esq., Acting Chief Secretary to Government, dated 25th May 1857 No. 55.

SIR,

1. I am directed by the Judges of the Court of Sudr Udalut to submit to be laid before the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, the accompanying copy of a letter from the Civil Judge of Chittoor dated the 16th Ultimo, suggesting that power be vested in Civil Judges to grant at least 5 days leave of absence to their Sheristadars on their own responsibility.

2. The Judges observe that under the rules in force all Uncovenanted Judicial servants drawing salaries of Rupees 100 and upwards are unable to obtain leave of absence for a single day without previously obtaining their sanction, and, as much inconvenience is experienced from the necessity of submitting all such applications for the sanction of this Court, the Judges are of opinion that it might be left to the discretion of the Civil Judges to grant short leave of absence occasionally to the Sheristadars of their Courts, and they accordingly beg to recommend that the rules respecting absence for 5 days, dated the 16th November 1841, as extended to Principal Sudr Ameens, Sudr Ameens and District Moonsiff's under the orders of Government, dated the 12th September 1842, No. 553, and 15th September 1845, No. 683, may also be extended to the Sheristadars of the Civil Courts, the Civil Judges being of course responsible that the indulgence is not abused.

(Signed) GEORGE ELLIS, Register.

From G. A. HARRIS, Esq., Civil Judge of Chittoor; to GEORGE ELLIS, Esq., Register to the Court of Sudr Udalut, dated Chittoor, 16th April 1857.

Sir,

With reference to the rules for granting leave of absence to Uncovenanted servants drawing salaries of Rupees 100 and upwards, I have the honor to request, you will inform me if it is necessary that I should apply for sanction on occasion of the Sheristadar of my Court requiring a few days leave at any time. I would suggest that the Civil Judges should be permitted to grant at least 5 days leave in each month to their Sheristadars on their own responsibility, if it be considered that the rules prohibit the Judges from granting leave to them as they now can to their other ministerial servants. If such restriction be held to exist, the 5 days privilege now granted to Officers drawing a salary of more than Rupees 100, should I think be extended to Sheristadars of the Civil Courts, subject to the previous sanction of the Judges to their absence.

(Signed) G. A. HARRIS,
Civil Judge.

No. 9. ORDER THEREON, No. 652; dated 3rd June 1857.

Referred to the Civil Auditor for report as to whether the rules referred to by the Court of Sudder Udalut have not been superseded by the "Rules for regulating leave of absence and acting allowances to Public Officers in India not in the Covenanted Service of the East India Company." It is observed that Section VI, Chapter III authorizes the grant of leave of absence to Judicial Officers during the authorized closing of Civil Courts.

I have suggested that the Circuit Judges should be permitted to grant at least 5 days leave in each quarter to their clerks when on their own responsibility if it be considered that the rules prohibited the Judges from granting leave to them as they now can to their other clerks.

Sanction of the Judges to their clerks.
