Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 30th June 1857.

No. 1. Read the following letter from Colonel J. C. BOULDERSON, Commissioner of Police; to E. MALTBY, Esq., Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated 17th June 1857, No. 63.

SIR,

Will you do me the favor to solicit His Lordship in Council, to permit me to add 10 men to the strength of the mounted Police. I find the number of men I now have (40) forty,* not sufficient to admit of my having 20 men mounted every night, and I cannot manage well with less; indeed I should be glad to get the number made up to 50 mounted men in addition to the 6 Non-Commissioned Officers.

*Present strength.
Non-Commissioned Officers	6
Mounted men	34
Total...40

If this application obtains sanction, will you favor me by ordering 10 or 16 horses more, with saddles, &c. to be sent to me from Arcot.

(Signed) J. C. BOULDERSON,
Commissioner of Police.

No. 2. ORDER THEREON, No. 713; dated 24th June 1857.

Under the circumstances represented by the Commissioner of Police, the Government are of opinion that it would be desirable to have the strength of the mounted Police increased from 40 to 70 men exclusive of Officers, on account of the heavy duties the men are called upon to perform, and they resolve accordingly to authorize this addition to the number.

2. Ordered that the foregoing be communicated to the Military Department, in view to the necessary arrangements being made for supplying the Commissioner of Police with the requisite number of horses, with saddles, &c. complete.

(Signed) E. MALTBY,
Acting Chief Secretary.
