I would recommend that the detachment

should be replaced

at Chambers.

This is purely unsubstantiated

and would be the case - it is out of the question to have.

The primary object detachment is particularly the present should

The party of Robles is to large that the officer commanding at Faddaah the I think he desired to attack & destroy it. J. P.
Rupell may send some horse men

new to cooperate & cut up these grown out of the pays by the troops

It is true the best in putting down such strong gangs of horse the Indian for more serious assistance

for authority for Rupell to raise as many more horse as he requires. In addition to the 100 men P. S. G.
Mounted men are available for rapidly putting down disturbances on such occasions. The plan of Faddaah

It is also to authorize to raise more troops if he wishes to do so.

The detachment is sent to Jambun chakra. He is commanded by a European officer. Detachment half so commanded are available.

Orders have been sent to Cuddapah to send a detachment under a European officer to Jambun chakra.

The thing of the 14th March from Jambun chakra Whurnock has been ordered to move on the spot.

to Captain Russell. Turnout

You may raise more troops to protect your frontier & assist the Magistrate of Cuddapah.

Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 30th June 1857.

No. 32. Read the following Telegraphic Messages from Captain RUSSELL, dated 19th and 21st June 1857.

The people who looted Roorar, Cuddapah districts, were Arabs, about three hundred. They keep to the jungles. I have thirty-six Sowars watching the plains. But should be glad to have sanction to raise one hundred extra peons. I have no peons to spare, and besides this would also provide employment for a number of families in want.

The Rohillas who plundered Roodrar in Cuddapah, have got possession of the Nundi Cunama pass, and plunder travellers. I have not a man to spare. Please let me entertain some to protect this frontier. No troops I hear in Cumbum.

No. 32A. ORDER THEREON, No. 729; dated 26th June 1857.

The Right Honorable the Governor in Council gives Captain Russell discretionary authority to employ some additional Sowars and Peons. This order will be sent to him by Telegraph and he will report to Government what steps he takes upon it.

(Signed) E. MALTBY,
Acting Chief Secretary.
