Read the following Despatch from the Honorable the Court of Directors.

Approve the orders of Government respecting the disposal of the property of the deported Moplahs &c; and in regard to the payment of any portion of the fines to the family of the late Mr. Conolly, see no reason to interfere with the proposed application of the law in the case: notice with much gratification the high testimony borne by Mr. Clarke to the merits of his head Moonshee Munga Camotty.

(Here enter 3rd June, No. 6 of 1857.)

No. 39. ORDER THEREON, No. 843; dated 17th July 1857.

With their Despatch of 11th November, No. 38 of 1856, para. 13, the Government transmitted to the Honorable the Court of Directors the Minutes of the respective Members of Government, recommending that compensation should be made to the late Mr. Conolly's family under the provisions of Section VII of Act XXIII of 1854, and solicited their pleasure as to the manner in which the fines imposed on the suspected and deported Moplahs should be applied. The Court reply, that they see no reason to interfere with the proposed application of the law in the case of Mr. Conolly; and the Right Honorable the Governor in Council accordingly resolves to authorize the disbursement of the balance of these fines, viz., Rupees (30,936-13-10) thirty thousand, nine hundred and thirty-six, Annas thirteen and Pice ten, stated by the Magistrate of Malabar, in his letter of 2nd October 1856, para. 29, to be available after the payment of gratuities and other expenses, to the Administrators of the Estate of the late Mr. Conolly in compensation of the loss sustained by his family, by his murder by the Moplahs.

Copy of the Court's Despatch will be furnished to the Magistrate of Malabar.
