Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 4th August 1857.

No. 26. Read the following Extract from the Minutes of Consultation in the Military Department, dated 20th July 1857, No. 2370.

Read the following letter from Lieut. Colonel F. A. REID, Quarter Master General of the Army, 18th July 1857, No. 270; to the Secretary to Government, Military Department.

SIR,

With reference to the Resolution of Government of 6th Instant, No. 775, Judicial Department, I am directed by the Provincial Commander-in-Chief to say, that in General Sir P. Grant's arrangement for centralizing Troops, it was intended to have abandoned Paulghaut as a Station altogether; but circumstances have since occurred, rendering it necessary to postpone, at all events, the carrying into execution His Excellency's intentions. General Beresford desires me to say, that he would rather defer this consideration for a short time. If a Regiment remains at Paulghaut, it will be requisite to build an entire new set of buildings, should the Fort be converted into a Jail.

Communicated to the Judicial Department.
