DIARY.
1857
1	From the Court of Fouja- see Udaet.	22nd August.	Forwards as directed, their views on the letter from the Magistrate of Salem, offering certain suggestions in regard to the continued prevalence of crime in his district. Submit that they will make provision in future returns for the two offences of Gang Robbery in the houses, and in the fields being entered under separate heads. With reference to the wide difference of opinion stated to exist between the Magistrate and the Judges as to the persons from whom security can be legally required, feel confident that whenever security is demanded upon really sufficient grounds, the Magistrate's order is never not valid in appeal. State that provision cannot be made under the present system for the adjournment of the Sessions Court at Salem to Darangpore. Allude to the necessity of improving the rural Police of the several districts.
2	Order thereon.	10th Sept.	Authorize Mr. Brett to carry out his suggestion that the Coramers and the other wandering tribes shall be obliged to travel with passes and to report upon the effects of the measure after a period of a year. State that Government are not aware upon what date the assurance of the Judges with reference to the decisions of Sessions Judges in respect of the holding of persons to security, is based. Concur with the Court that provision cannot be made for the adjournment of the Sessions Court to Darangpore. Enquire through the Revenue Department, from what Collectors the report on the subject of the arrangements necessary for the reform of the village Police, have been received, and how many of them have been submitted to Government.
