Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 10th August 1858.

Read the following Despatch from the Honorable the Court of Directors.

Review the papers connected with the removal of Mr. R. R. Cotton from the appointment of Acting Sessions Judge of Rajahmundry; and think, under the circumstances stated, that an admonition pointing out the irregularity of his proceedings and enjoining more caution for the future, would have met all the exigencies of the case and do not approve of any measure which would injuriously affect Mr. Cotton's position pecuniarily or otherwise.

ORDER THEREON, No. 1070; dated 7th August 1858.

Resolved that it be brought to the notice of the Honorable Court in reference to the concluding passage of their Despatch above recorded, that Mr. R. R. Cotton's removal from the Acting Judgeship of Rajahmundry has not affected that gentleman's position, either pecuniarily or otherwise, inasmuch as within a few days after he was removed from Rajahmundry he was appointed to act as Collector and Magistrate of Guntoor or in an Office of equal emolument and consideration with that of which he had been deprived. Mr. R. R. Cotton has since been appointed Sub-Judge of Bellary and is now Acting as Civil and Session Judge of Madura.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
