Home Dept.

SIR,

I am directed to transmit the annexed Extract (para. 25) from a Despatch, No. 4 of 1858, dated the 2nd June, from the Honorable the Court of Directors, and to request that a report as to the extent to which the provisions of Act No. XXV of 1857, respecting the forfeiture of property have been carried into effect, may be furnished in due course for transmission to the Honorable the Court of Directors.

Extract from a Despatch from the Honorable the Court of Directors in the Legislative Department, No. 4 of 1858, dated the 2nd June.

Act XXV of 1857, to render Officers and Soldiers in the Native Army liable to forfeiture of property for mutiny, and to provide for the adjudication and recovery of forfeitures of property in certain cases.

25. This is another of the Acts which have been called into existence by recent events in India. We shall of course be informed, on a future occasion, of the extent to which its provisions in regard to the forfeiture of property have been carried into effect.

(True Extract.)
