Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 5th October 1858.

No. 29. Read the following letter from E. STORY, Esq., Session Judge of Tinnevely; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated 17th September 1858, No. 822.

SIR,

* 6. The Government cannot further but remark on the conduct of the Session Judge, in having received the man and for so many months detained him in custody without any sentence, Warrant, or legal authority whatsoever, or any notice of his case, beyond a reference to the Inspector of Prisons.

† Bhigaree Shah.

out sentence or Warrant of any kind, I was aware that I was acting irregularly, but as the times were dangerous and the man was sent to me through the Magistracy, in company with another Mahomedan convicted of trying to stir up rebellion and mutiny in Cuddapah, I considered it my duty to receive him into Jail.

2. Had the man been of a dangerous character, and I had refused to receive him into Jail, and he had thereby made his escape, would not Government have blamed me?

† Session Judge Cuddalore, 1st December 1857.
Inspector of Prisons, 12th do. do.
To do. do. 3rd March 1858.
Magistrate of Chittoor, 9th April do.

1. With reference to para. 6* of the Extract from the Minutes of Consultation, under date the 6th Instant, I beg respectfully to explain that when I received the individual† in question into the Jail under my charge, with-

3. After applying to three different persons† in vain, I was at a loss to whom to apply further for information.
