No. 52. Read the following letter from J. ROHDE, Esq., Inspector of Prisons: to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George, dated 14th January 1858, No. 19.

SIR,

I have the honor to forward copy of a letter from the Sessions Judge of Honawar, proposing that until a house is built for the Jailor, he shall be provided with a rented building at 4 Rupees monthly, at the expense of Government. I beg that sanction may be given to this arrangement.

2. Mr. Molle's letter refers to my having objected to plans and estimates already sent in by Lieutenant Goddart as far too expensive, I desired that the work might be delayed till I visited the station and that the prisoners should prepare such material as would not involve any outlay in the interim.

(Signed) J. ROHDE,
Inspector of Prisons.

From W. M. MOLLE, Esq., Sessions Judge of Honore; to J. ROHDE, Esq., Inspector of Prisons, dated 23rd December 1857, No. 950.

SIR,

The European Jailor here, Mr. Curran, represents that, in consequence of there being no house built for him, he is obliged to hire a house at a rent he can ill afford to pay. May I therefore request the favor of your informing me whether house rent at Rupees 4 per month can be allowed him until a house is built for him. I have ordered a certain number of prisoners to be employed in cutting stones for a house for the Jailor, and will employ prisoners in building it as soon as the plan is fixed upon.

(Signed) W. M. MOLLE,
Sessions Judge:
