Sir,

I have the honor in obedience to Para II N^o 72 of the Fort Saint George Gazette of the 5th July to make the following report for the information of His Excellency the Commander in Chief

I Intelligence last night reached Mr Ballard, the Assistant Magistrate of North Canara, from the Governor General of Goa, that the Mahatta Chieftain Deeparamah had surrendered.

II This assistance and protection have enabled the Sawunt Brothers so long to elude capture, and now that his influence with the Villagers in the Goa Territories will be exerted in our favor instead of in theirs, I anticipate a speedy conclusion to this protracted affair

III The Sawunt Brothers have not more than 30 or 40 followers.

Mr

Mr Ballard has written to Government to notify this change in the aspect of matters, and that more troops will not be required.

IV The Sawunt Brothers have been offered their lives on surrender by the Goanese authorities, and I hope ere long to be able to communicate to His Excellency the Commander in Chief that they have either surrendered or been captured and that the services of the Wing of the 35th Regiment M. A. I. have been dispensed with by the civil authorities.
