		Police Force of Anjengo and Tangacherry in the District of Malabar.											Casual.	"The smuggling of tobacco, attended with affrays and blood-shed, has been extensively carried on at Anjengo and Tangacherry—British villages, but isolated in the Travancore territory—to the detriment of the Travancore Government, to whom these places have been leased for many years past for the security their revenue derived from the tobacco monopoly. As the additional Kolkars now applied for were emergently required for preserving the peace of these villages,—the Police management of which is under the Honorable Company—this Government authorized the Acting Magistrate of Malabar to employ them at once; and request the sanction of the Government of India to the same, from the date of their entertainment."	Favorable.
