Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 2nd March 1858.

No. 41. Read the following letter from J. LUTCHMENAROOSOO Chetty; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated 24th February 1858.

SIR,

I beg to forward herewith copies of the Tamil and Telugu versions of Mr. Strange's "Manual of Hindu Law" which I have been permitted to print and publish on the same terms as the English edition.

Government having in Extract Minutes Consultation 29th October 1856, been pleased to sanction the purchase of 300 copies of the English Manual, I am encouraged to request, that the same patronage may be extended to the translations now forwarded, as calculated to be of service to District Moonsiffs unacquainted with English; and in the Revenue Department among the Tahsildars. The price is Rupee 1 and Annas 8 each copy.

No. 42. ORDER THEREON, No. 269; dated 1st March 1858.

Resolved that the copies of the Tamil and Teloogoo versions of Strange's Manual of Hindoo Law received with the foregoing letter, be forwarded to the Tamil and Teloogo Translators to Government respectively for report.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
