Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 12th March 1858.

No. 59. Read the following letter from N. VENCATASOOBIAH; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, dated 26th February 1858.

SIR,

With reference to the Extract Minutes Consultation, dated 29th January 1856, No. 89, Judicial Department, I respectfully beg to submit herewith a complete copy of the Teloogoo translation of the Madras Code of Regulations and Acts compiled and published by me down to the end of 1853. As the utility of the Code has already been proved to Government by a report from the Teloogoo Translator to Government, dated 18th November 1857 on it's merits, I beg you will have the goodness to patronize the Work by purchasing as many copies as may suit the requirements of service in the Revenue and Judicial Departments in the interior and thus encourage my undertaking as well as of others. The price of the complete Work in 3 volumes is Rupees seventeen.

Trusting your honor will excuse this intrusion on your momentous time.

No. 60. ORDER THEREON, No. 313; dated 8th March 1858.

Resolved that the 3rd volume of the Teloogoo translation of the Madras Regulations and Acts received with the foregoing letter, be forwarded to the Teloogoo Translator to Government for report.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
