Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 8th January 1858.

No. 33. Read the following letter from J. BIRD, Esq, Magistrate of Trichinopoly; to E. MALTBY, Esq., Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 24th October 1857, No. 129.

SIR,

Para. 1. Adverting to the Notification of Government, dated the 19th Instant, and published at page 610 of the Fort Saint George Gazette of the 20th October 1857, I beg respectfully to suggest that, the power to grant Licenses under the provision of Act XXVIII of 1857, be extended to Superintendents of Military Police at Cantonments.

2. There are two or three shops within the Cantonment of Trichinopoly where percussion caps and gunpowder are sold; and over these parties keeping such stores, I have no jurisdiction.

(Signed) J. BIRD,
Magistrate.

No. 34. ORDER THEREON, No. 5; dated 4th January 1858.

The Government think it unnecessary to authorize the Superintendents of Military Police at Cantonments to grant Licenses under Act XXVIII of 1857.

2. It will suffice if all applications from parties resident in Cantonments be made through the Cantonment Police, who will see that the terms of the License are observed and afford any information that the Magistrate may require regarding the extent to which Arms are manufactured or sold.

3. With respect to Mr. Bird's statement, that there are two or three shops within the Cantonment of Trichinopoly where percussion caps and gunpowder are sold, and that over parties keeping such stores he has no jurisdiction. The Government would remark that infractions of Act XXVIII of 1857, are punishable on conviction before a Magistrate, that is—Section XXXI—any person exercising the full powers of a Magistrate who indeed is the only person—Section XXXII—having powers of conviction and confiscation.

4. With regard to percussion caps, the Magistrate must be aware—Notice 19th October 1857—that none can be made or sold without a License from the Commissioner of Police at Madras. It will be his duty to see that none are sold at Trichinopoly without License from that Officer.

T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
