Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 1st June 1858.

No. 32. Read the following letter from J. ROHDE, Esq., Inspector of Prisons; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government of Fort St. George, dated Ootacamund, 15th May 1858, No. 170.

SIR,

* Original. I have the honor to forward an application* from the Sessions Judge of Chingleput to be allowed to visit the Guindy Jail, now placed under his immediate control, quarterly. I must say that the arrangements for the superintendence of this Jail are not, to me, satisfactory, and I think it would be desirable that the Sessions Judge should visit it more than once a quarter or that if his visits are to be at such distant periods that some better qualified person than the present Jailor should be employed in the immediate charge of the prisoners.

From W. DOWDESWELL, Esq., Session Judge of Chingleput; to J. ROHDE, Esq., Inspector of Prisons, dated Chingleput, 26th April 1858, No. 140.

SIR,

By the Circular Order of the Fouzdaree Udaltut, dated 13th February 1849, the Sessions Judge was directed to visit the Guindy Jail twice a year and at that time all the details of the Jail were carried on under the superintendence of the Officer in charge of Public Works. In May last, the Government directed that these prisoners should be removed from under the Officer in charge of Public Works and placed under my charge and I find it impossible to manage that Jail without visiting it frequently; I therefore request you will oblige me by recommending that I be allowed to visit it quarterly. The distance is so short I can easily take advantage of any public holiday so that my visits will not interfere with my duties here.

No. 33. ORDER THEREON, No. 699; dated 31st May 1858.

The Right Honorable the Governor in Council directs that the Sessions Judge of Chingleput shall visit the Guindy Jail quarterly. It might interfere inconveniently with his other duties if his visits were more frequent, but the Inspector under the opinion which he has expressed should take early measures for the entertainment of a more efficient Jailor than the one now employed there.

Chief Secretary.
