Extract from the Minutes of Consultation, 5th June 1858.

Had letter from the Adjutant General of the Army, Head Quarters Ootacamund, 31st May 1858, No. 955; to the Secretary to Government, Military Department.

With reference to Extract from Minutes of Consultation of the 22nd ultimo, No. 1394, I communicate Minutes of Consultation in the Judicial Department dated 16th April No. 494, stating that before passing orders on the letter from the Acting Magistrate of Masulipatam, Government wish to have the views of Captain Ansley on the proposed constitution of the Sebundy Corps for Masulipatam. will be ascertained through the Military Department why that Officer has not yet joined his new appointment, and arrangements will be made for relieving him as early as practicable from Regimental duty, as the formation of the Corps has been delayed on that account.

have the honor by order of the Commander-in-Chief to forward for submission to the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, copy of letter from the Officer Commanding 9th Regiment

I, dated 15th instant, No. 181, affording explanation regarding the delay of Captain Ansley joining the Sebundies at Masulipatam, and stating that that Officer proceeded to take up his appointment on the 15th ultimo.

His Excellency considers the explanation satisfactory.

From the Officer Commanding 9th Regiment N. I. Secunderabad, 15th May 1858, No. 181; to the Deputy Adjutant General of the Army, Fort Saint George.

With reference to the 2nd Para. of the letter from the Adjutant General of the Army, to the address of the Officer

No. 714.

pecting that Officer Commanding 9th Regiment may be called upon for explanation why Captain Ansley joined his Regiment when it was ordered to Secunderabad

Commanding Hyderabad Subsidiary Force, dated 4th May 1858, number and subject as margin, I have the honor to state that Captain T. C. Ansley did not join the Regiment under my command when it was ordered to march to Secunderabad, he being at that time in Command of the Detachment of his Regiment at Masulipatam, which was under instructions from my Head Quarters directed to stand fast.

II. Captain Ansley only received intimation of his appointment to the Sebundies when on march up with his detachment from Masulipatam and on his arrival at Secunderabad on the 15th March 1858, he was directed by the Major General Commanding to join and do duty in his Regiment till further orders—and on the 8th April 1858, he was permitted to proceed on the same authority, and take up his appointment.

III. Captain Ansley left Secunderabad en route to join his appointment on the 15th April 1858.
