Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, from 23rd to 29th July 1859.

Read the following Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India.

Points out that before taking any such step as the appointment of a Commission for preparing a statement of the arrangements under which the union of the Supreme and Sudder Courts and the remodelling of the Provincial Courts may be effected—it would have been proper to have communicated with the Government of India, before whom the subject of the amalgamation of the Supreme and Sudder Courts has for some time been under consideration, and desires that any report made by the Commission may be transmitted for the consideration and opinion of the Governor General in Council.

(Here enter 15th June, No. 6 of 1859.)

No. 38.

ORDER THEREON, 26th July 1859, No. 1006.

The formal appointment of the Commission for enquiring into and reporting on the evils of the present system of judicature, and the means by which they may be most effectually remedied—was reported in a later Despatch, 6th June last, No. 21. When a report is submitted, the course desired by the Secretary of State will be followed.
