With reference to the Order of Government, No. 942, and dated the 9th Instant, directing me to communicate with the Deputy Commissioner, Raichore Doab, and ascertain, whether any of the prisoners from his Districts, at present confined in the Bellary Jail for rebellion, are such characters as to preclude their being set at large, I have the honor to report for the information of the Government, that the Deputy Commissioner, Raichore Doab, in reply to my communication on the above subject, has informed me that he has nothing particular to advance against any of the prisoners confined for rebellion in the Bellary Jail individually.

The Honorable the Governor in Council directs the Session Judge of Bellary, to release the prisoners in the Bellary Jail, belonging to the Raichore Dooab—informing them at the same time that they owe their pardon and liberation to the clemency of Government, and exhorting them to be loyally and peacefully disposed for the future.
