Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, from 6th to 12th August 1859.

No. 26. Read the following letter from N. B. ACWORTH, Esq., Agent and Manager; to Captain C. C. JOHNSTON, Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated 6th August 1859, No. 426.

1. With reference to your letter to me of the 16th February last, transmitting Extract Minutes of Consultation of Government, No. 165 of the 8th February, I have the honor to inform you, that the Board have made enquiries, from which it appears that there is a Janet Ogilvie, living at New Castle, who had a son named John Ogilvie, who was discharged from Her Majesty's 37th Regiment, on the last day of October 1854.

2. From the facts stated in Mr. Ross' letter to the Civil Judge of Calicut, dated 2nd September 1858, referred to in the Minutes of Consultation, I think it probable that the "Mr. Ogilvie" therein, mentioned, is the same person as was in the 37th Regiment, but his Will and papers (which would appear to have been handed over to the District Moonsiff) would probably shew this clearly, or at least give his Christian name.

3. If his identity with the son of Janet Ogilvie should by this or other means sufficiently appear, I should be happy to take charge of the amount in deposit with the Civil Judge of Calicut for remittance to his mother.

Submitted for the information and orders of Government, with reference to Extract Minutes of Consultation, No. 165, dated 8th February 1859.

Madras, 8th August 1859. (Signed) P. P. O'CONNELL, Captain,
Dy. Cons. Engr. for Railways in charge.

To the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George.

No. 27. ORDER THEREON, 11th August 1859, No. 1079.

Communicated to the Civil Judge of Calicut.

2. On satisfying himself as to the identity of the deceased, the Civil Judge is authorized to surrender the amount in deposit with him to the Railway authorities at Beypoor, in view to its being ultimately paid to the mother of the deceased at New Castle.
