Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, from 13th to 19th August 1859.

No. 20. Read the following letter from J. ROHDE, Esq., Inspector General of Jails; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George, dated Ootacamund, 30th July 1859, No. 323.

In consequence of a communication from Mr. Edward Bird, Subordinate Judge of Ootacamund, pointing out the insufficiency of the Jail guard,* I have, on my own responsibility, authorized his entertaining 4 additional Peons, in order to relieve the guards over Convicts at labor from night duties, pending this reference.

* 14th July.

2. In order to relieve the over-crowded and unhealthy Jail of Coimbatore, and with the view to a profitable employment of the prison labor, I directed the transfer of 80 Convicts to this place; my intention was, that none but able bodied men who had already been imprisoned for a considerable portion of their term should be sent, but this was not altogether practicable and, as Mr. Bird remarks, several have been sent whose previous conduct should induce precaution.

3. I beg the Government to sanction the temporary addition of 4 Peons, extra to the present establishment, the salary is 7 Rupees for each.

4. I send a form should reference be needed to Calcutta.

No. 21. ORDER THEREON, 16th August 1859, No. 1094.

4 Four Peons on Rs. (7) seven each.

Government sanction the additional temporary establishment, required for the Jail at Ootacamund, and will report the same for the confirmation of the Government of India.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.

Probably for two years.	That the present Peon guard is insufficient in the absence of any Military guard for the security of the Jail by night, and for the daily duties at the Jail now containing 67 Convicts besides prisoners under trial, and debtors. The additional temporary establishment has been sanctioned, subject to the confirmation of the Government of India.	Favorable.
