Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, from 10th to 16th September 1859.

No. 1. Read the following letter from Major W. J. WILSON, Magistrate of Police; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 7th September 1859, No. 43.

I have the honor to inform you that I yesterday received an intimation from the Judge Advocate General of the Army to the effect that I am required to be at Bangalore on the 16th Instant, in order to give evidence for the prosecution at the trial of Lieutenant Kay of Her Majesty's 44th Regiment.

2. In event of it's being decided that I am to comply with this requisition, I propose to leave Madras by the afternoon Train, on Tuesday the 13th Instant.

3. In all probability my absence will not extend beyond eight or nine days, and I have ascertained that Mr. Clarke is willing to take charge of my office until my return without detriment to his leave; but as he is now on privilege leave, nearly two months of which are still unexpired, a special Order of Government will be requisite, in order to enable him to act for me and take advantage of the remaining portion of his leave on being relieved by me.

4. As I believe that the proposed arrangement is the best that can be made, I trust that it may meet with the approval of Government.

No. 2. ORDER THEREON, 10th September 1859, No. 1215.

Major Wilson, Magistrate of Police, is permitted to proceed to Bangalore, to give evidence before a Court Martial, and to leave Madras on the 13th Instant.

2. The Government will avail themselves of Mr. Clarke's services to perform Major Wilson's duty at the Town Police Office during his absence. Mr. Clarke's performing this duty, will, under the peculiar circumstances of the case, be without prejudice to his enjoyment of the remainder of the privilege leave granted him on the 29th July last, to which he will revert, on being relieved of the charge of the Town Office by the return of Major Wilson.

Chief Secretary.
