I have the honor to report that the Prisoners named in the margin—British subjects—are charged with having at Cranganore in the territory of His Highness the Rajah of Cochin during the night of the 21st of July 1859, committed robbery by open violence in the house of one Eromen Oonithery and carried off, gold and silver coins, ornaments, brass and copper utensils, &c., of the value of 604 Rupees, 5 Annas and 11 Pice, the property of the said Eromen Oonithery, and the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, and 7th prisoners with having in their possession parts of the stolen property, well knowing the same to have been stolen.

The evidence against the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, and 9th presoners being sufficient to warrant their being brought to trial, I have the honor to request that you will submit the case for the orders of the Government agreeably to Section 3, Act I of 1849.

The evidence against the 8th prisoner being insufficient to warrant his committal to the Criminal Court, I have released him from custody.

No. 65. ORDER THEREON, 16th September 1859, No. 1253.

Under the provisions of Section IV, Act I of 1849, the Government authorise the trial of the eight British subjects named in the margin, charged with having committed gang robbery in the territories of the Rajah of Cochin, to be had before the Session Judge of Calicut.
