Extract from the Minutes of Consultation, under date the 21st January 1859.

and the following Memo. from W. GREY, Esq., Officiating Director General of the Post Office in India; to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Calcutta, 7th January 1859, No. 2286.

The Officiating Director General of the Post Office has the honor to intimate that, in consequence of the recent order rendering prepayment of letters to the United Kingdom compulsory, reference having been made respecting the treatment of unpaid Official letters, it has been determined that such letters shall continue as heretofore to be forwarded as unpaid letters, provided that they are addressed to any of the Public Functionaries or Departments, which have a postage account with the London Post Office.

2. A list of such Public Functionaries and Departments has been received from the London Post Office and a copy of it is annexed hereto. Letters addressed to Public Offices or Departments not included in the list, will if not prepaid, be treated as private unpaid letters.

instructing officers, and in view of the importance of presenting the case to the Admiral.
I have, as above, from the Chief Clerk of the Post Office, in London, obtained that it has been determined that special officers shall continue as before the late war.
I am afraid, however, that they are not authorized to accept the same instructions as before. I have therefore, as above, secured with the London Post Office - and procuring a list of such officers as are now employed.
