I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the Order of Government dated 3rd Instant, referring for my report a claim preferred by Major W. J. Wilson, Officiating Commissioner of Police, for the superior allowances whilst acting for Colonel Boulderson.

In reply, I have the honor to state that, Lieutenant Colonel Boulderson being a Military Pensioned Officer, is regarded as an Uncovenanted Civil Servant, and Major Wilson, a Covenanted Officer acting for him, is, under the Order of Government of India, dated 20th April last*, entitled to a deputation allowance at 20 per cent. or Rupees 300 a month, in addition to his own salary as a Magistrate of Police.

As Mr. Clarke is also likely to apply for some remuneration for acting for Major Wilson, I would beg to add that, the Order above quoted is applicable to his case also, and that under its provisions he, as an Uncovenanted, acting for a Military Officer in Civil employ, is entitled to a deputation allowance of Rupees 200 in addition to his own salary while officiating as Magistrate of Police, vice Major Wilson.

As Lieutenant Colonel Boulderson is detached from Madras, on special duty, connected with his office, he will draw his full salary; there are, therefore, no funds available to defray Major Wilson and Mr. Clarke's deputation allowances. These charges will, therefore, form an extra charge to the State if sanctioned by Government.
