Magistrate of Madura, 21st September last, No. 169.

The 3 Statements of Casualties during the official year 1858-59, received with this letter, exhibit 8 escapes and 82 deaths at the Straits' Settlements among the Convicts embarked from Madras.

2. Of the Convicts absconded from Penang, Doorga Narrainsawmy has been executed, under sentence of the Supreme Court, for another murder—Nagoor Rowten is under sentence of re-transportation—and Teroomalay Reddy was apprehended, but escaped from his guards. Of those still at large, three, including the one from Malacca, are Mysore Convicts.

3. Ordered that the Statements in question be forwarded in original to the Inspector General of Jails—and that Extracts* from them be furnished to the Commissioner at Mysore and the Resident at Hyderabad, containing respectively the Casualties among the Convicts belonging to those Territories, together with those, whose Districts are not mentioned, or are unknown.
