To,

J. Pycroft Esqre
Chief Secretary to Government
Fort Saint George

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that the Gluny supplied by the Inspector General of Ordnance and Magazines on the 7th June 1859 for the use of H. M. Gaol, in pursuance of Extract from the Proceedings of Government dated 19th May 1859 No 704, has been broken; and to request that you will have the goodness to obtain the Sanction of the Honorable The Governor in Council for the supply of a new Gluny, on the return of the broken one to the Arsenal.

The Gluny when supplied was returned to the Inspector General of Ordnance &c as it appeared to be cracked, and he was requested to furnish another one. On the 7th June 1859 he returned the same Gluny to me stating that it had been tested in the arsenal and found perfectly sound, the crack alluded to being nothing more than a a sand mark in casting" Since then the Shuring had been in use in H. M. Gaol, and was sent to my Office on the 18th Instant by the Keeper of that Prison with a report that it broke when a Peon was striking the hour.

I have the honor to be

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, for the month of November 1859.

No. 43. Read the following letter from W. S. WRIGHT, Esq., Sheriff of Madras; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 22nd November 1859, No. 83.

I have the honor to inform you, that the Ghurry supplied by the Inspector General of Ordnance and Magazines on the 7th June 1859, for the use of Her Majesty's Gaol, in pursuance of Extract from the Proceedings of Government, dated 19th May 1859, No. 704, has been broken; and to request that you will have the goodness to obtain the sanction of the Honorable the Governor in Council for the supply of a new Ghurry, on the return of the broken one to the Arsenal.

The Ghurry when supplied was returned to the Inspector General of Ordnance &c., as it appeared to be cracked, and he was requested to furnish another one. On the 7th June 1859, he returned the same Ghurry to me stating that it had been tested in the Arsenal and found perfectly sound, the crack alluded to being nothing more than a sand mark in casting. Since then the Ghurry has been in use in Her Majesty's Gaol, and was sent to my Office on the 18th Instant, by the keeper of that prison, with a report that it broke when a peon was striking the hour.

No. 44. ORDER THEREON, 25th November 1859, No. 1604.

The Inspector General of Ordnance and Magazines will issue a new Ghurry in exchange for the one reported to be broken.
