SIR,

1. I have the honor to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government, for the colouring, by contract, at 25 Rupees the copy (one copy, or a little more perhaps, being as much as an expert and neat colourist can accomplish in a month) of the 20 copies of the large plan of Madras, &c., ordered by Government in Extract Minutes of Consultation, No. 75 of the 19th Ultimo.

2. Those to be partially coloured for the Commissioner of Police and Magistrates, for the several public offices, and for sale, may, as time and opportunity permit from its other and more important duties, be done in this Department.

3. The 20 copies that I have solicited may be done on payment, will take about five months to complete, as not more than three or four colourists who can be trusted with the work, are at present available.

No. 70. ORDER THEREON, No. 175; dated 8th February 1859.
